

Fenians Festival 2019 has launched!

It commemorates the escape from Western Australia of renowned Irish Fenian poet John Boyle O'Reilly.

Poet and writer, John Boyle O'Reilly arrived in Fremantle on the Hougoumont in January 1868. On board this ship he wrote poetry and helped edit a hand-written newspaper, the Wild Goose, which is now considered a nation literary treasure.

The authorities moved him to the Bunbury district where, with the help of local Irish settlers and a Catholic priest, he escaped in February and hid in the bush till the 3 March 1869 when he boarded an American whaler, the Gazelle.

This festival commemorated his departure for Boston, where he became a newspaper editor and champion of human rights.

O'Reilly's other major literary contribution to Australia was his work Moondyne, a novel about Western Australian life first published in the Boston in 1880. It is believed to be the very first novel ever published about Western Australia. He also helped organise and fund the purchase of the Catalpa which arrived years later to rescue the remaining Fenians from Fremantle Prison.
